

I'm very pleased to announce that Steve Smith has completed the first of three volumes of books on the history of 149 (East India) Squadron.

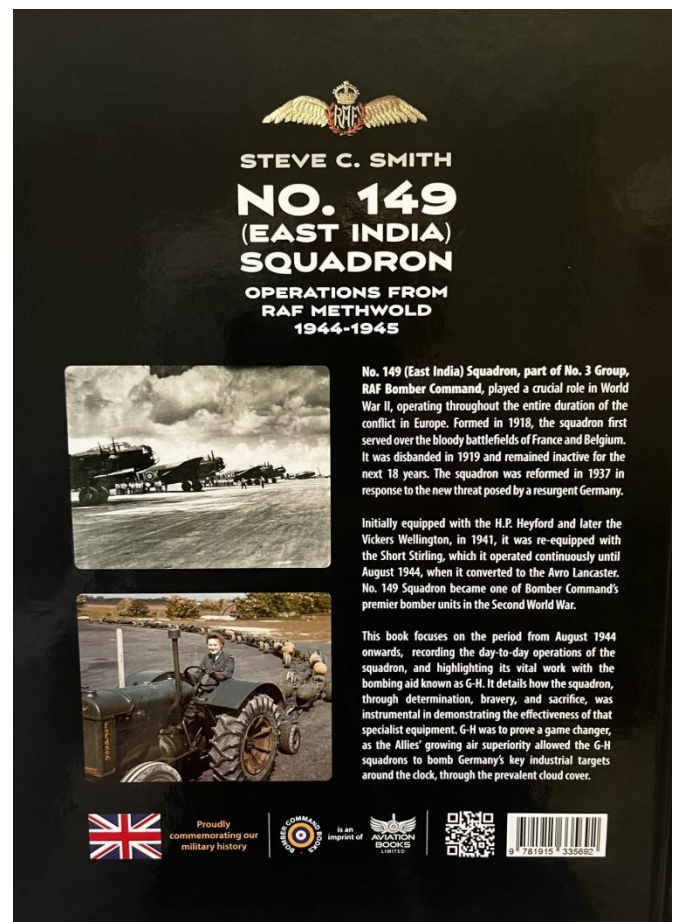

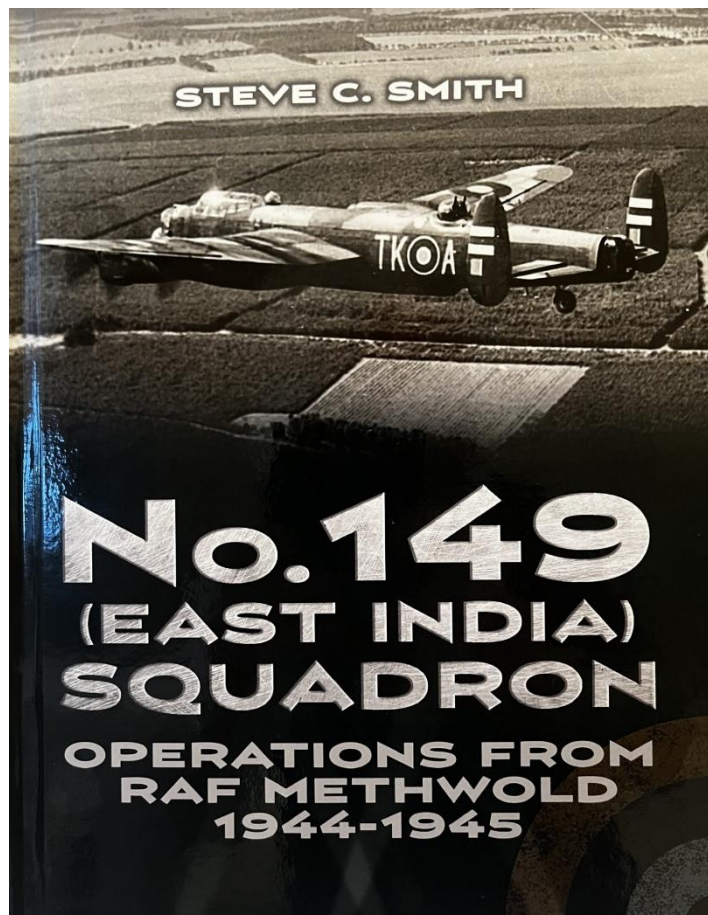

Having acquired all of historian Alan Fraser's vast records, Steve has set about putting all their combined knowledge into a series of books detailing the squadrons history from 1937, right through the war.

It has gone on sale through the following web site: -

Steve is looking for help from anyone whose relatives served with the squadron, initially for the period from 1937 until the end of 1941. This book will form Volume One in the series.
